

John 10:22-30 NKJ

NOTES

[illegible]

My prayer this week:

1. In verse 25, Jesus says, "I told you, and you do not believe." What does this reveal about the relationship between belief and understanding? How can this apply to our own lives when it comes to recognizing Jesus and His teachings?

2. What does Jesus mean when He says, "The works that I do in My Father's name, they bear witness of Me" (v. 25)? Why is the testimony of Jesus' actions so crucial in understanding His identity?

3. In verses 26-27, Jesus contrasts the unbelief of the Jews with the belief of His sheep. What does it mean for us to be "His sheep," and what does it look like to follow Him?

4. What is the significance of Jesus saying, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me" (v. 27)? How does this relationship of knowing and following shape our personal faith journey?

5. Verse 28 presents a beautiful promise: "And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand." What does this promise mean to you in terms of security and assurance in your salvation? How can this verse bring comfort in times of doubt or struggle?

6. In verse 29, Jesus speaks of the Father's power to protect His sheep. How does this statement reinforce our confidence in God's ability to keep us safe spiritually? What does it mean that no one can "snatch" us from God's hand?
