(Discussion Group Questions)

Talk about the incorrect ideas about God people get when they don't adjust their thinking to understanding the biblical 'attributes' about Him.

- Do you think your view of God is becoming more accurate and balanced as you get to know His biblical attributes?
- How has your view of God and relationship to Him changed through learning His true attributes?

- Which attribute of God seems the hardest for you to grasp?
- Why do you think people have difficulty accepting the idea of a God with the attributes seen in the Bible?
- How important to growing up in the Christian life, is a correct view of God's character and attributes?

- How does correct theology of Who God really is and what He is really like, affect our devotional times, family time, when we're at work or school, our ministries and when we are all alone?

- Which of God's attributes is most comforting right now in your life?
