

We're glad you're interested in becoming a Volunteer!

Volunteers are key to everything we do as a church. There's not a program, ministry, event, activity, or endeavor that is not facilitated by an amazing volunteer. From children's ministry to church services to anything that happens throughout the weeks, volunteers are right at the center of ministry.

That's why we take great care when recruiting, training, developing, and pastoring volunteers.

Please read through the information below to better understand the role, qualifications, and expectations. If, after consideration, you are interested in volunteering with us, please complete the short application.
